

BEC Tools

getBEC v.0.14b

getBEC is a bash script that allows to automatically download netCDF files corresponding to a given product.

Download this tool and place your username and password in the source code. Remember that you can request your free login data by filling this form.

Documentation

See source code

Bash code

- Download source code